Upon inquiry conducted by the Office of Special Investigations (OSI) of the U.S. Department of Justice, it is hereby alleged that:

1. You were born on September 2, 1922, in Horbach, Germany.
2. You are not a citizen or national of the United States.
3. You are a citizen of Germany.
4. You entered the United States from Germany at the port of New York, New York, on or about August 17, 1955 as an immigrant.
5. You joined the Hitler Youth organization in Germany in 1934 and subsequently joined the Nazi Party in Germany in September 1940.
6. You commenced service in the Waffen SS on or about February 5, 1941 in the elite unit "Leibstandarte SS Adolf Hitler."
7. During 1942, you volunteered to become an SS dog handler.
8. The SS employed SS dog handlers at Nazi concentration camps to deploy trained attack dogs to patrol the camps, escort and guard prisoners, search for escaped prisoners and prevent prisoners from escaping.
9. As an SS dog handler, you served at the Dachau and Buchenwald Concentration Camps in Germany.
10. While serving at the Dachau and Buchenwald concentration camps, you trained personnel in dog-handling techniques so that they could utilize dogs to prevent the escape of concentration camp prisoners.
11. SS regulations concerning dog-handling at concentration camps in effect during the time of your service specified that dogs were to be trained to "bite without mercy" and to literally tear prisoners to pieces if they attempted to escape.
12. While serving at the Dachau and Buchenwald concentration camps, you were armed and guarded prisoners with a trained attack dog, to prevent their escape.
13. While at the Dachau and Buchenwald concentration camps, you were armed and guarded forced labor details with a trained attack dog to prevent prisoners from escaping.
14. You served at the Dachau and Buchenwald concentration camps at various times during the period from October 1942 to late 1944.

15. In a sworn statement given to representatives of OSI on March 13, 2007, you admitted, inter alia, that you served as an SS guard at the Dachau and Buchenwald concentration camps for 2-3 months each, that you guarded forced labor details of prisoners at both camps while armed and that you instructed other SS personnel on dog-handling techniques.

16. Persons were imprisoned at the Dachau Concentration Camp because of their race, religion, national origin and political opinion. Prisoners there were subjected to severe mistreatment, including subjection to slave labor, inhumane and involuntary medical experimentation, inadequate food, shelter, and medical care, physical and emotional abuse, torture, and murder. In total, approximately 38,000 prisoners died at the camp.

17. Persons were imprisoned at Buchenwald Concentration Camp because of their race, religion, national origin and political opinion. Prisoners there were subjected to severe mistreatment, including subjection to slave labor, inhumane and involuntary medical experimentation, inadequate food, shelter, and medical care, physical and emotional abuse, torture, and murder. In total, approximately 55,000 prisoners died there.

AND on the basis of the foregoing allegations, it is charged that you are subject to removal pursuant to the following provision of law:

Section 237(a)(4)(D) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. 1227(a)(4)(D), as an alien described in Section 212(a)(3)(E)(i), 8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(3)(E)(i), of the INA, in that, as a dog trainer and handler at Dachau and Buchenwald Concentration Camps, you ordered, incited, assisted, or otherwise participated in the persecution of persons because of race, religion, national origin or political opinion between March 23, 1933, and May 8, 1945, under the direction of or in association with the Nazi government of Germany.
