Ciara,

Thanks for your call. We've provided below the verification of the claims made in the LSP video on the Pete Sessions/Michael Steele double standard.

As you will see, the Forty Deuce club owner himself confirms that the club features "girls who were dancers taking their clothes off."

Efforts by Sessions and his staff to parse words and make technical distinctions are patently dishonest.

It is extraordinary that GOP party leaders – even the North Carolina State Party Chair today – are calling on Michael Steele to resign, while they are give Sessions a pass.

Please acknowledge receipt and feel free to call me on my cell if you need more information.

Double Standard: Pete Sessions' Racy Fundraisers

Club #1 - Forty Deuce

Club #2 - Tao in Las Vegas

"[Pete] Sessions, the Sleuth has learned, held a fundraiser in February at a racy venue in Las Vegas whose Web site features come-hither looking women scantily clad in lingerie slithering all over each other....Republicans point out the NRCC chairman's fundraiser was held at the Tao restaurant, not the Tao nightclub. (Never mind that the two are under the same roof, as the night spot's Web site proudly proclaims.)"

"Now, it seems topless swimming pools are the new nightclubs, and though they aren't as prevalent, all signs point to that changing, especially with the success of European-style pools such as Bare and Tao Beach. "

Not Apologizing

From the American Public Media Marketplace Report:

Pete Sessions: That's right, we do a Las Vegas fundraiser every year and not only raise money, but see Las Vegas. It's a beautiful town.

[Reporter Steve] Henn: Forty Deuce is a strip club.

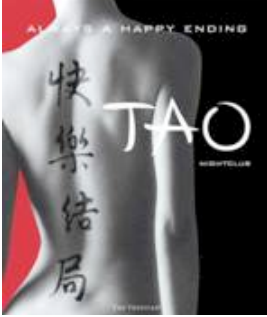

Pete Sessions: You know, I've never seen that. It is what I would call a burlesque show where there's a woman who comes out and has a dress on... Uh, she never get's naked. There's no nudity, there's no nudity in there.

(Source : American Public Media Marketplace Report , July 22, 2008)

“And Sessions' chief of staff, Guy Harrison, tells the Sleuth there was no nudity at the fundraiser at all, just good old fashioned burlesque. "It was as racey as a 1940's movie," Harrison assured us.”
